The third edition of Copp's Settler's The third edition of Copp's Settler's Guide, a popular exposition of our public land system, is before us. It is edited by Henry N. Copp, of Washington, D. C., the well known author. Its price is only 25 cents in paper and 75 cents in cloth: 800, 144pp. The chapter on surveys is illustrated, and shows how to tell township and section corners, etc. The chapters on Howeverlands. Procountions and Timber. Homesteads, Pre-emptions and Timber Culture contain the latest rulings and in-Culture contain the latest rulings and in-structions. Every settler and land man should have a copy of this valuable little book. The pamphlet also contains the necessary blanks to be filled out by those who have returns to make on U. S. lands they have homesteaded or pre-empted. It also tells how to make entries, pre-emp-tions, and in fact gives full information regarding the public lands and what is to be done in order to get possession of them.

The great popular remedy of the day for coughs, colds, asthma, and all long difficulties, is Adamson's Botanic Balsam. On motion of Supervisor Spratt, supported by Supervisor Sanborn, the bill of Charles N. Cornell was laid on the table for future consideration.
